

REGENTS' POLICY
PART V – FINANCE AND BUSINESS MANAGEMENT
Chapter 05.14 – Gifts

P05.14.010. Acceptance of Gifts.

- A. All gifts made to the university or for the benefit of the university, unless expressly prohibited by the donor, will be accepted, held, and managed by the University of Alaska Foundation, as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation of the University of Alaska Foundation dated May 20, 1974, except the following, which will be accepted and held by the university:
1. gifts of real property; and
 2. gifts of tangible personal property that are to be used directly in the educational, academic, research or administrative programs of the university; in this paragraph, “educational” includes athletic.
- B. The president is authorized to make exceptions to this policy.

(02-19-99)

P05.14.020. Role of the University of Alaska Foundation.

The University of Alaska Foundation, a separate and distinct non-profit 501(c)(3) corporation,

D.

P05.14.090. Regulations and Procedures.

The statewide office of development will coordinate the various offices of development in the university in developing university regulation and procedures regarding fundraising and these policies. The university regulation and procedures will be consistent with regentn.4 tntn.4d9.2 nr(n.4(nt)-210

A.

Minimum Endowment:	$250,000
or
Minimum Annual Gift:	$15,000

B.

