P01.03.020. Regulations.

- A. The president shall promulgate regulations and amendments thereto, necessary or proper to implement or administer policies expressed in the Policy Manual. Regulations may also be promulgated as "emergency regulations" without reference to a policy expressed in the Policy Manual, and without prior review, if the president determines that there is an urgent need for the regulation.

Emergency regulations shall be brought to the board at the earliest opportunity at which the matter may be regularly considered. Emergency regulations not rejected by board action shall remain in effect. Emergency regulations rejected by board action shall expire at the end of the first working day after the adjournment of the board at which they are to be considered by the board.

- B. Except as provided otherwise in Regents' Policy, the president shall seek review and comment by chancellors and by affected governance groups prior to the adoption or amendment of a regulation. However, the president may adopt editorial changes or changes required by law or administrative agency action prior to review. Review of such revisions shall be promptly initiated after adoption. For the purpose of this subsection, "regulation" does not include emergency regulations.
- C. The president may delegate authority by regulation.
- D. Regulations shall be presumed to be valid.
